C : Reading Passage :

Read the following passage and match each paragraph with one of the headings .
Write the letters (A , B , C , D) in front of the numbers of the paragraphs.
There is one extra heading

Headings

- (A) Use interesting and new words in your speech.
- (B) Use an index card in your speech.
- (C) The audience wants you to be successful.
- (D) Use pictures to show specific points.
- (E) The importance of pauses in speech

40. After you've written your speech, it can be helpful to put it on small index cards. They are easier to carry around, and because you don't want to spend your entire time on reading your notes, index cards will help you feel more willing to have a quick look at the cards when you open them. But don't use index cards as a support and try to pay attention to your audience as well.
41. An audience is made up of people who are not unlike you. They come to hear you because you have something important to say. Also, because they do not want their time to be wasted, it's in their best interest for you to succeed.
42. Pauses add variety to boring speeches. If you do not include pauses, you might as well sing your audience a bedtime lullaby – the effect will be the same. While pauses are always important, it is critical to have them in every occasion.
43. Your speech will get very boring if you repeatedly use the same words. So use interesting and different words and phrases and keep things new, and avoid using repetitive sentences very often in your speech.
