

Grade Two

A. Choose the best choice.

1. A piece of paper money.....
 a. lab b. reward c. cage d. bill
2. The birds are kept in a.....
 a. math b. cage c. reward d. tape
3. Unhappy means.....
 a. pleased b. glad c. sad d. right
4. she gets if he comes home late. She gets very unhappy.
 a. happy b. glad c. upset d. pretty
5. Would you like a..... of cake?
 a. copy b. sugar c. slice d. request

B. put proper words for the definitions below. There is one extra word.

according to - banana - bill - cage - cassette player - copy - decide - find out - while - - get cold - language

1. I don't like traveling in places where I don't know the:.....
2. As somebody or something says:.....
3. A machine that plays cassettes:.....
4. To discover (sth. hidden or lost):.....
5. A place with bars round it to keep birds or animals in:.....
6. One book; one newspaper:.....
7. When; at the time that:.....
8. Choose something after thinking:.....
9. illness, when you sneeze and cough:.....
10. A long thin fruit:.....

C. put the words under the right columns.

fuse - blue - rule - used →

/u:/	/ju:/

Grade Two

D. According to the meaning of the sentences, choose the suitable choice.

1. Would you mind helping me with these math problems?
 1. Could you help me to solve these math problems?
 2. Please help me to look at these math problems.
 3. Would you mind telling her to help these math problems?
 4. Please remind me to do these math problems.
2. Washoe didn't eat the banana slices when she was doing the puzzles.
It means,
 1. She did the puzzles for the bananas.
 2. She was hungry.
 3. She did the puzzles only to get food.
 4. She did the puzzles for the fun of it.

E. Comprehension.

Read the following passage and answer the questions.

John had seen some beautiful little radio in a shop window. He wanted one very much, but he didn't have the money to buy it, so he decided to steal it. He went into the shop one day after his lessons, when it was full of school boys and school-girls, took the radio which he wanted, put it under his overcoat and walked out. He thought that he had been very clever, but the shopkeeper quickly realized that the radio had gone.

1. John is a clever boy True False
2. He tried to steal the radio when the shop was very busy. True False
3. Although he had the money, he tried to steal it. True False
4. The shopkeeper didn't understand that someone had stolen the radio.
 True False

Haste makes waste